

Quotefalls are grid-based word puzzles that each contain a hidden quote. The quote is laid out in a crossword-style grid with spaces represented by black squares and letters by white squares. Above each column are a series of letters that go in the white spaces in that column in some order.

Use your powers of sleuthing and deduction to solve as many ESK Quotefalls as you can, and enter your answers in our Google Form! You'll receive a star for each quote you solve, plus a bonus star if you can name the author of the quote.

Submit correct answers to just one or all five and earn anywhere from 1-10 stars for your team!
